

November Update

Grant Award Night 2021 celebrates our community!

Grant Award Night was an exciting evening! Members and guests enjoyed the event on the lovely grounds of the Witte Museum or watched it live streamed on our YouTube channel. There was plenty of excitement as our High Impact and Support Grant recipients were announced!

Agency update: Family Service Association

It's hard to conduct business in an environment that's uncomfortably hot or cold, but that's the situation that Family Service Association faced at their headquarters on San Pedro Avenue. The old heating and air conditioning units frequently broke down, with repairs and high utility bills costing the nonprofit agency about $60,000 a year. A 2020 High Impact Grant from Impact San Antonio solved that problem.

Member profiles: Michelle and Virginia Scherer

We normally profile one member each month, but this month we have something different — a mother-daughter duo! Michelle and her daughter Virginia are enthusiastic about their memberships in Impact San Antonio. Here's what they have to say.

Grateful Beyond Measure

My heart is overflowing with gratitude for everyone who has made our 2021 Impact San Antonio grant cycle possible. Transformative grants to local nonprofits will soon be enabling these agencies to improve lives and create brighter futures.
