Agency update: Guardian House

When Guardian House received a 2019 High Impact Grant from Impact San Antonio, their focus was on repairing and upgrading their headquarters, a vintage home in the Monte Vista area.

Some of the work, including foundation repair, had already been done when Covid hit. But the pandemic raised questions about whether the headquarters were adequate in an age of social distancing.

Now, the grant has been repurposed to provide for needs highlighted by the pandemic: more bilingual staff and related supplies and equipment. That is much needed because the agency saw an 86 percent increase in client enrollments from 2020 to 2021.

Member profile: Mary Massey - Volunteer Program Chair

Mary Massey, our new Volunteer Coordinator, has an amazing list of accomplishments, including everything from developing patents to road racing in her red Mazda Miata. She joined Impact San Antonio in 2020 and the board of directors in late 2021.

Here's what she has to say about her busy life and her involvement in Impact San Antonio.

President's message: Join our parade of giving

For a Louisiana native like me, the Mardi Gras season is always a special time.

While many people may focus on parades, king cakes and revelry when they think of Mardi Gras, in reality, it represents so much more.
