Agency update: San Antonio Mennonite Church

San Antonio Mennonite Church sits at the confluence of four neighborhoods south of downtown, ranging from the upscale King William area to the gentrifying Lavaca neighborhood and the less affluent Lone Star and Roosevelt Park neighborhoods to the south.

Because of that location, those who work at the church see many people in need, including asylum seekers, domestic violence victims and others who live nearby or move through the area. But they have struggled to adapt their aging facilities to meet those needs.

Member profile: Dona Kotzur

Dona Kotzur's work for local nonprofit agencies provides a great background for her membership in Impact San Antonio, and she's enthusiastic about the way our collective giving model benefits our community. Coincidentally, the agency where she's now President/CEO — The Arc of San Antonio — received the first grant that Impact SA ever made, in 2005!

President's message: Let's spring into action!

Spring is in the air, and it's a time for reflection and renewal. March is also National Women's History Month (NWHM), the annual celebration of the accomplishments of women in our society. Fittingly, the theme for this year's NWHM celebration is, "Women Providing Healing, Promoting Hope."
