Agency update: House of Neighborly Service

The House of Neighborly Service is focused on alleviating hunger on the West Side. In their service area, 40 percent of households are living below the poverty line. The HNS kitchen and food pantry provide a vital service for those residents. But their aging building, completed in 1929, long has needed a larger, updated kitchen. That's where Impact San Antonio came in.

Member profile: Jennifer Rushton

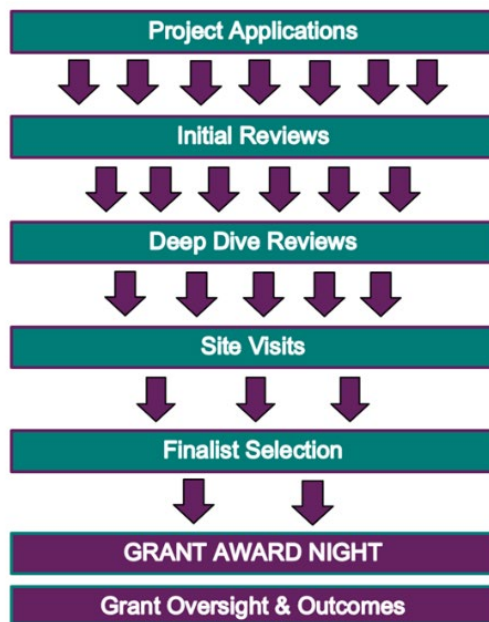

Jennifer Rushton decided quickly to join Impact San Antonio after reading about our organization in a news story. Here is what she has to say about being a member.

President's message: Thank you, thank you, thank you – WE DID IT!!

Impact San Antonio has reached a total of $555,000 for 2022, enabling us to provide a $100,000 High Impact Grant and an $11,000 Support Grant in each of our five focus areas – Arts & Culture; Education; Environment, Recreation & Preservation; Family; and Health & Wellness. This is only possible because of you – the amazing women who donate and join our membership each year.
