

July Update

Check out these volunteer opportunities!

Volunteering for Impact San Antonio is fun, and it doesn't have to take a lot of your time. Volunteers are the lifeblood of our organization, and there are a number of roles you can fill. In addition to our event volunteer spots (detailed under the relevant events below), we have three other opportunities available now.

For more information on these or other positions, contact Mary Massey at volunteercoordinator@impactsanantonio.org.

Membership: Deliver gift bags to new Impact San Antonio members before their New Member Orientation Zoom meeting. Delivery should be done between July 31 and Aug. 2. We'll give you addresses and phone numbers. The assembled gift bags will be delivered to you ready to distribute. This can be done solo, or you can team up with another Impact SA member for extra fun! Deadline to respond to this invitation is Monday, July 25.

Marketing and Communications: Our Marketing team is looking for a member who is a social media enthusiast. They would like to develop a social media calendar and increase Impact San Antonio's presence on more platforms. This will augment Co-chair Karen Davis's work with Facebook. We are seeking a member who has experience with posting on Instagram and LinkedIn.

Become one of our 2022 grant liaisons!

We're seeking Impact San Antonio members to be grant liaisons for our 2022 High Impact Grant and Support Grant recipients! It's an amazing job where you work closely with one recipient agency as they move through the grant process and see their project to fruition.

Save the date for Grant Award Night

Evening of Monday, October 24

The Mays Family Center at Witte Museum

Mark your calendars now - you won't want to miss the most exciting event of our year!

Agency update: House of Neighborly Service

If you've seen the Fiesta Flambeau Parade or been to Luminaria or other local arts events, you've likely seen performers from URBAN-15 dancing in colorful costumes, sometimes sparkling with lights. They even marched in the 2009 presidential inaugural parade in Washington, D.C.

Those performances required in-person rehearsals and training. But all that came to a halt in March 2020, when the nonprofit shut down its live classes and activities due to the pandemic. It was a tough time, but Impact San Antonio's 2018 High Impact Grant helped the agency get through it.

Sponsor profile: HEB

This month, we start a periodic series of features on the sponsors that help Impact San Antonio fund our operating expenses. H-E-B was a title sponsor for Grant Award Night in 2019 and has been an annual sponsor since 2020, currently at the Platinum level.

We spoke with Julie Bedingfield, public affairs manager for H-E-B, about the company's role as an Impact SA sponsor and its years of philanthropy in the San Antonio community.

Non-voting contributor profile: Miguel Rojas

This month, in place of our usual member profile, we are featuring a story about the husband of one of our members, Suzanna Gonzales Rojas, who passed away in July 2021. Miguel Rojas has chosen to honor his wife by becoming a non-voting contributor to our grant pool this year.

President's message: It takes a village

While we are all still basking in the excitement of reaching a total of $555,000 for 2022 grants, I'm reminded that doing the work of Impact San Antonio takes a village.
